

Winter Farmers Market

and Continental Breakfast

Saturday, March 20 • 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Ebenezer Lutheran Church

1650 W. Foster Ave., Chicago (1 block west of Ashland at Paulina)

A Farmers Market in Winter? Yes!

Come get a jump start on spring with our fantastic selection of natural meat & poultry, mushrooms, cheese, fruit butters & preserves, farmstead soap, organic flour, salsas, soup & sauces, yarns & fibers, fresh produce, honey, cider, pickled vegetables, eggs, breads, tarts, pastries—and so much more!*

FOOD

In the morning, enjoy a delicious continental breakfast and Three Tarts Bakery's Apple Cinnamon Bread. For lunch, fill up on homemade pizza made fresh by our members.

WOOL-SPINNING

Watch our spinners and knitters demonstrate their crafts!

COOKING DEMONSTRATIONS

Learn great culinary tips from René Rich of Learn Cook Eat.

KIDS' ACTIVITIES

Check out the Food is Fun demo by Purple Asparagus. Engage your children at a Wiggleworms session with Little Miss Ann of Old Town School of Folk Music. And there's face painting with Lisa Gillis of My Corner Playroom.

*Free child care available while you shop.

If you have questions, contact Kerri McClimen (kerri.mcclimen@yahoo.com, (773) 529-9250) or Pam Edelmann-Sall (pesall@comcast.net, (773) 545-3181).